

First Cold Email Campaign • The Plan

Franchise Sellers

Company Sellers

Target: live by end of day Thursday, July 2. One brand, one segment, a small first batch.

The point of campaign one: prove deliverability and the system with a small, clean send. Not perfection. Get it out, watch the signal (replies, bounce), then scale next week.

THE STEPS

STEP	OWNER	BY
1 Pick the target One brand, one segment (a named franchise system for FS, or a top industry for CS).	Theodore + Malcolm	Mon
2 Write the copy FRESH A 3-email sequence for that segment. Reference our past copy if useful, but you are not limited to it. The Broker Playbook is the bar.	Malcolm	Wed EOD
3 Stage + verify Load the approved copy, fresh-verify the leads, build the campaign in Instantly. Still dry-run, nothing sends.	Theodore + Claude	Wed–Thu
4 Go live, small Flip the switch on ~200 to 300 contacts, one brand only. Nothing else.	Theodore	Thu
5 Watch for 48 hours Bounce under 3%, unsub under 2%, replies sane. If clean, ramp next week.	All	Thu–Fri

Malcolm owns step 2: write the first sequence fresh

Build it new from the best practices, not by polishing the old drafts. The old templates in the dashboard Copy Preview Pack are a reference only.

Pull these into your Claude and let it draft + self-grade with you:

`cold-email-outbound/docs/BROKER-COPY-PLAYBOOK.md` (best practices, swipe library, seller psychology) + `COLD-EMAIL-COPY-FOR-MALCOLM.md` (voice rules). Both are in the repo you have access to. The `improve-copy` skill is the drafting engine.

NON-NEGOTIABLES FOR THE COPY

- Email 1 starts a conversation, never sells. Under 80 words.
- One soft CTA (a question). No link in email 1.
- Credibility, not claims. Use our 27 years, confidentiality, our process. Never "sold for more than they expected."
- Name confidentiality early. It is the owner's first fear.
- Frame the free valuation honestly: a no-obligation opinion of value, not a formal appraisal, no guaranteed number.
- No em dashes, no filler, honest subjects. Specific and exit-themed beats generic.
- 3 emails, days 1, 4, 6, each shorter than the last.
- Soft seller breakup at the end. Never "point me to the right person."

Not needed for campaign one: Eric's ICP (it sharpens targeting and per-segment wording later, it does not gate this send), other channels, or perfect copy. Keep it moving. · Franchise Sellers / Company Sellers · 2026-06-28
